COMENTARIO SOBRE PROCESO CREATIVO/ STATEMENT	"I paint to express the feelings and emotion of my mind which in inside of my heart. The emotion that nobody can see and I do not know the word to express it by language. So color is the media for expressing the feelings which is not really a definite form or shape. Which is really kind of abstracts emotion. So this is the reason my art works became a symbolic and technical with lots of new presentations. And I also feel that as an artist I have responsibility and commitment to my society." (Khalid Mahmood, 2010)
